Welcome to iPRES 2026 in Copenhagen, Denmark

iPRES 2026 is the 22nd in a series of international conferences on all aspects of digital preservation – a field which is ever growing and important. The conference embraces a variety of topics in digital preservation – from strategy to implementation, and from international and regional initiatives to small organisations. Within this broad topic area, each conference defines a slightly different focus – in 2026 with the themes Community, Preservation and Horizon.

Having started within the library and archival world the conference is now dedicated to spread the word of digital preservation to a wider audience since e.g. every research, finance or medical company needs digital preservation to be able to document and tell their company history.

The iPRES conference typically attracts between 350 and 500 on-site participants and reaches hundreds more globally through virtual attendance, offering sponsors a broad and diverse audience. Sponsorship provides a unique platform to showcase your brand, products, and services to an engaged, international community of practitioners, researchers, and strategists. Partnering with us highlights your commitment to preserving our shared digital heritage and creates opportunities to build meaningful connections in the city of Copenhagen, known for its historical monuments and rich cultural heritage but also its modern way of life. Amplify your impact and leave a lasting legacy by supporting this premier event in digital preservation.

The annual conference has previously been held in four different continents. In 2026 it will take place from 21st to 25th September at CPH Conference in the very centre of Copenhagen, Denmark. The hosts of iPRES 2026 are Royal Danish Library, The Danish National Archives, Copenhagen University, and Copenhagen City Archives.

Venue

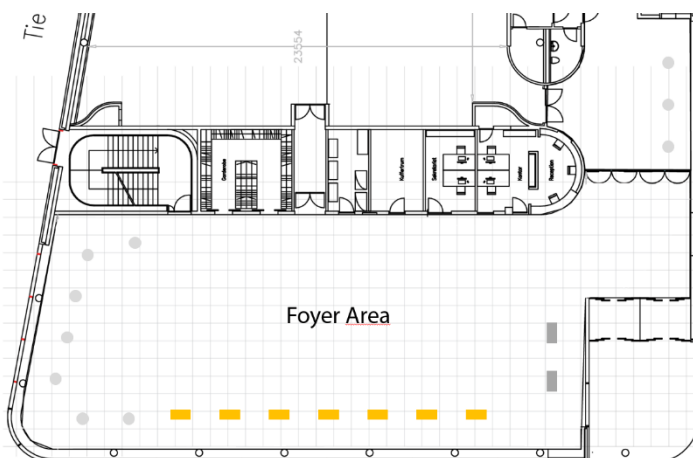

CPH Conference in DGI Byen is situated right next to Copenhagen Central Station and only a short metro ride from Copenhagen Airport.

The conference centre is the hub for many international conferences and has several dedicated areas for coffee breaks and networking. The largest of these, the Reception or Foyer area right outside the main conference room on the ground floor, will also be the area for the main sponsor booths (use the QR code below for a 360° tour of the area).

Each booth will be equipped with a large table and two chairs (Platinum and Gold) or a bar table with one chair (Silver).
